 2. Martin Luther King Birthday
 3. Independence Day
 4. Labor Day
 5. Thanksgiving Day
 6. Christmas Day

- B. Overtime pay, calculated at one and one-half times an employee's hourly rate for hours actually worked beyond 40 hours per week, shall be granted to career and non-exempt professional employees upon authorization of the president.
1. The hourly rate shall be determined by dividing the employee's annual salary by 2080 hours.
 2. In those instances in which compensatory time is earned, it shall be scheduled to be taken within four months following the date it was earned and at a time approved by the immediate supervisor.

- C. If a full-time, regular employee is out one or more days during a work week (even if due to a covered sick day(s) or annual leave) and he or she works in excess of his or her normal working hours, he or she will be reimbursed for extra hours on a straight time basis only.
- D. Eligible employees who work overtime may choose to be paid for it or to receive compensatory time off. Employee selecting to take compensatory time off shall be eligible for such compensatory time at the rate of one and one-half times the hours worked. The supervisor will authorize overtime pay or compensatory time, whichever is in the best interest of the College. Compensatory time off shall be taken within four months following the date it was earned and at a time approved by the supervisor. Supervisors will be responsible for tracking each employee's compensatory time. If compensatory time is not able to be used due to no fault of the employee, such as turnover or projects, during the time frame noted above the individual will be paid out for their time or the time to use may be extended up to two additional months.
- E. Call-in pay: An employee, eligible for overtime or compensatory time, who has completed work and left the College premises, and who is later called in and reports to work before the start of the next regularly scheduled shift, shall be eligible for call-in pay and guaranteed three hours of work or pay even if the actual working time is less than three hours.
 - 1. The employee will be compensated at a straight-time rate (i.e., not at an overtime rate).
 - 2. The employee must complete a time sheet and indicate the day when call-in pay was earned. The time sheet must be approved by the immediate supervisor.
 - 3. An employee called into work earlier than normal, who remains to complete a shift, shall not be eligible for call-in pay.
 - 4. Multiple call-ins between regularly scheduled shifts will all count as one call-in until the individual works more than the guaranteed three hours of work or pay.
- F. The College shall endeavor to pay the minimum wage, subject to financial considerations, as established by the Fair Labor Standards Act.
